district governor

PO Box 3031, Sunnybank South Qld 4109

Lion Johnson Chen is a passionate community advocate committed to building stronger, more connected communities and inspiring service for the future. Born in Taiwan, Johnson moved to South Africa with his family at the age of 10, before making Australia home in 2000. He later completed a Bachelor of Business Management and a Master of Applied Law at the University of Queensland, and has built a diverse career across education, international trade, hospitality and procurement, including more than 13 years in the Queensland Government procurement sector.

Outside work, Johnson has devoted nearly two decades to community service through multicultural, heritage and not-for-profit organisations. Since joining Lions in 2012, he has served in a range of club and district leadership roles and is committed to building on the proud legacy of Lions while creating fresh opportunities for the next generation to serve.

Johnson is now very happily married to Amy Wong, and together they are enjoying the adventure of building a life side by side, discovering that marriage, much like Lions, is all about service, patience and good humour.

Please warmly welcome Lion Johnson Chen.
