1st vice district governor

PO Box 3031, Sunnybank South Qld 4109

Johnson is a passionate advocate who dedicates himself wholeheartedly to empowering our communities for a brighter future. Born in Taiwan, Johnson moved to South Africa with his family at the age of 10, where he completed his formal education and pursued university studies.

In 2000, Johnson and his family made the significant move to Australia. He went on to earn both a Bachelor of Business Management and a Master of Applied Law from the University of Queensland. With a diverse professional career spanning education, international trade, marketing, and hospitality, Johnson found his true calling in procurement. For over 13 years, he has been devoted to the Queensland State Government Procurement sector, championing sustainable procurement practices.

Johnson's journey in community service began 19 years ago when he started volunteering for various non-profit organisations and community events. In 2012, he joined Lions, quickly becoming an active member, taking on different club roles, and hosting numerous events.

Please welcome your 1st Vice District Governor, the enthusiastic community advocate who aspires to inspire future generations, Lion Johnson Chen!
